no conclusive evidence to show decreasing employment opportunities in the rural areas.

(b) No, Sir. There are several reasons for migration from rural to urban areas.

(c) and (d) Questions do not arise.

Schemes/programmes for the welfare of rural women

3065. PROF. M.M. AGARWAL: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the details of schemes and programmes formulated and being implemented for the welfare of rural women in the country; and

(b) the details of financial assistance provided to each of the States during each of the last three years for implementing the above schemes in the rural areas of the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI SURYAKANTA PATIL): (a) The major schemes implemented by the Ministry of Rural includes Sampoorna Gramin Rozgar Yojana (SGRY), SwaranjayantJGram SwarozgarYojana(SGSY), Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY), Accelerated Rural Water Supply (ARWSP)/ Swajaldhara, Total Sanitation Campaign (TSC) and Area Development Programmes. The guidelines of the major programmes of the Ministry have provisions which benefit women also. Under the wage employment programme of SGRY 30 per cent of the employment opportunities are reserved for women. Under SGSY 50 per cent of the groups formed in each block have to be exclusively for women who will account for atleast 40 per cent of the total Swarozgaries. Similarly under IAY, houses are to be allotted in the name of women members of the household or in the joint names of husband and wife.

(b) A statement showing the funds released to the States for implementation of the programmes of the Ministry during the last three years is enclosed.
